

Vintage Trailer Campout August 19-21 2010

Deming Log Show grounds in Washington State.

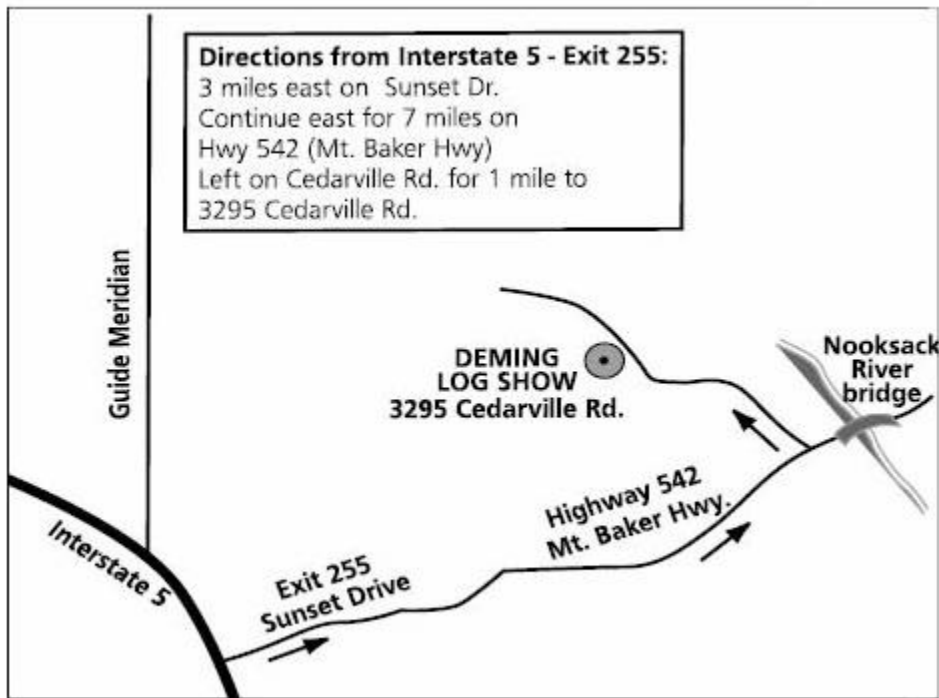

As everyone is making their vintage trailer camping plans we thought we had better invite you to our campout. Like last year it will be held at the Deming Log show Grounds east of Bellingham off the Mt. Baker Hwy in Washington State. This campout is camping only. There are no organized activities. Our slogan/motto is MAKE YOUR OWN FUN! Last year we accomplished this even though the rain tried to dampen our spirits. The sun eventually came out and the rest is history. Camping is available from Monday the 16th on. This event follows the WBCCI vintage trailer buddy rally (open to all vintage kin) being held by Iain Cameron at the Abbotsford International Air Show. Many of us will be caravanning straight to Deming. The cost for camping per night is $15 for power sites and $10 for dry camping. No rally fee. Please consider joining us, we had a laid back wonderful time last year.
