

WHAT I DID ON MY SUMMER VACATION

Jack Nicholson
A Trip to the Moon, 2007

View the EXHIBITION Jack Nicholson: Sojourner Dream Reliquaries.

Engage in a SCAVENGER HUNT through the exhibition.

FILM screenings of the 1902 science-fiction film "A Trip to the Moon" and the 1954 Lucille Ball comedy "The Long, Long Trailer"

Bring your camera for vacation related PHOTO OPS.

TOUR NEW AND VINTAGE TRAILERS in the Harn parking lot provided by J.D. Sanders RV. Visit the Tin Can Tourists' display describing their trailers and travels.

DISPLAY VACATION-RELATED OBJECTS or photographs. For more information or to reserve a table, contact esaari@harn.ufl.edu. Tables must be reserved by August 4.

at the Harn Museum of Art
AUGUST 12, 6 - 9 P.M.

SW 34th St. & Hull Rd.
Across from SW Rec Center
Take the "Lakeside 125" bus
www.harn.ufl.edu
Become a fan of the on Facebook
www.facebook.com/HarnMuseumofArt

Museum Nights is an ongoing program made possible by the generous support of the UF Honors Program and Student Government.

FREE ADMISSION