We are looking for 10 to 15 swank - mod - fab vintage trailers, from approximately 1940 to 1972, that are original or fully restored/refurbished, for the annual Tucson Modernism Week Vintage Trailer Show. Entry fee is $50 per trailer. Participants get electric hook-up, one night free hotel^o, an owners reception, free admission to most Modernism Week events October 8–14, 2017*, and a chance to win the Mod-Can Award for best Trailer.

^oTrailer electric hook-up and hotel room are available based on request.

* VIP tickets may not cover independently produced events that are affiliated but not produced by Tucson Historic Preservation Foundation.

Details

Trailers accepted for exhibit at Tucson Modernism Week 2018 will be on public display October 13-14, outdoors in Tucson, Arizona. Trailers must arrive Friday, October 12 between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. for parking. Departure will be Sunday afternoon, October 14 after the close of public viewing hours at 2:00 p.m. Due to the parking arrangements; no early departures will be possible. Extra days before or after the event will not be possible.

We have room to display some vintage tow vehicles. Please indicate if you are planning to show your tow vehicle and include a photo, length, make and model.

If you wish to advertise your trailer for sale during the show, or promote any type of product or service, you must register as a vendor and pay a vendor fee of $200. Please check the application. Otherwise, no "for sale" or other type of marketing signs are permitted.

The entry fee for trailers accepted to the show is $50 per trailer, for up to two people per trailer. Refunds for cancellation or any other reason will be solely at the discretion of the organizers.

Accommodations

Trailer owners are encouraged to stay at the endorsed hotel, unless they need to stay with their trailer for security purposes. (Professional security is provided for the entire length of the show). Electricity sufficient to recharge trailer batteries and operate 12v DC appliances will be provided for approximately 8 hours per day (not at night).

If you choose to stay in your trailer, please arrive with fresh water, and empty black and gray holding tanks.

If you do not need to stay in your trailer, Modernism Week will pay for one night of your stay at a nearby hotel during the weekend of the Vintage Trailer Show (nights of October 12 and October 13). Please note that there is no requirement you stay an extra night at the hotel. Reserved room rates vary from 89.00 – 159.00 a night plus taxes and misc. for exhibitors of vintage trailers.

If you plan to stay in the nearby hotel, please check the appropriate box on the application form (below). We will assist you with booking. You'll be required to present a credit card upon check-in, for additional nights and incidentals.
