TCT Rally Fee is $25 per trailer

Twenty sites have been set aside for TCT and need to be reserved by March 4th, 2024. After the March 4th deadline any unreserved sites will be released and be available on a first come first served basis. The nightly camping fee for 2024 is $41.42. A deposit equal to one night camping fee is charged when you reserve a site. The first night fee is non-refundable. If you cancel within fourteen days of arrival, you will be given credit by Fisheating Creek in the amount of $41.42 that will be good for six months. No credit will be issued if you cancel after the fourteen-day window. This is the policy of the campground and not Tin Can Tourists. Your rally fee will be refunded however.

The twenty sites are located in rows B, C D & F. Call the campground office, tell them you are with TCT and they will let you know which sites in a given row are available.

Go to fisheatingcreekoutpost.com where you will find the campground map. Choose an available site and indicate your site number when filling out this registration.

Please note: Due to the limited number of sites the sooner you select the better chance you have of securing a site.

Total Due with this Registration: $25.00

Once your registration and rally fee are received, I will inform you via e-mail. I will also email an agenda with details for activities and provided meals etc. once all the sites have been claimed.

Send this registration form along with your check made payable to:
